

TRIUMPH TRANSITIONS

A specialized summer program designed for teens and young adults ages 16-20, focused on life skills, independence, and self-advocacy.

Skills for Success

- ✓ Independence
- ✓ Life Skills
- ✓ Self-Advocacy
- ✓ Leisure

Tailored to support a diverse range of needs—including those with Autism Spectrum Disorder, ADHD, or Social Communication Disorder—this program blends structured recreation, vocational activities, and leadership opportunities to support a confident transition into adulthood.

DATES

Period 1: June 28-July 16, 2027

Period 2: July 19-Aug 6, 2027

LOCATION

E. Ethel Little School in North Reading, MA

Goals & Activities:

Independence and Life Skills:

Hands-on practice for everyday independence:

- Community activities, such as grocery shopping & public transit
- Social skills woven into activities
- Transition planning & resources

Leisure and Recreation:

Structured recreation builds confidence and connection through:

- Games (cooperative & non-competitive)
- Creative arts & tabletop games
- Expressive arts, including theater and music
- Swimming & field trips

Leadership & Self-Advocacy:

Opportunities to lead, mentor, and grow:

- Leadership roles with campers at Camp Triumph
- Plan and run the campwide Point Store, facilitating our token economy
- Manage the Camp Canteen, our Camp Triumph store

To learn more, please contact us or visit our website.

Program Fees

The cost for Triumph Transitions is $3,175.00 per 3 week period. Transitions participants can apply for one or both periods. Individual weeks are not available. We are closed on July 5th.

How to Apply

Applications are considered on a rolling basis until all spots are filled. Scan the QR code below to apply on our website or contact us for more information.

New participants or those who haven't attended a Triumph Center program in the past year must complete an intake interview (includes a $150 non-refundable fee).

To reserve a spot, a 50% non-refundable deposit is due within one week of acceptance. Final payment is due by May 14, 2027 or you may be placed on a waitlist.